There is a world above,
Where parting is unknown,
A whole eternity of love,
Formid for the good alone;
And faith beholds the

Translated to that happier

HISTORY OF CLASS OF '23

History is thought of as being the past. That past however is prophetic; it builds future.

The chief interest in any history lies in the fact that it is never completed. Our class history does not end with the close of our work in Farmer High School. What the future will reveal will depend upon what the past has wrought. We feel that when that future has made its revelation the word SUCCESS will be written for the class of 1923.

Four years ago a body of fourteen freshies started into our little high school. Green ah! yes, green as you find them. We felt out of place and were fearful of the initiation and hazings of the upper class-men. After a few weeks of school we grew accustomed to our surroundings, schoolmates, and teachers. They seemed to take us into their midst as one of them. The first year we were willing and tried to make Farmer High feel proud of us.

At the end of the first semester we lost one of our classmates, Kenneth Sweet. After the semester vacation we had with us a new classmate, Miss Dorothy McConkey, thus maintaining our original number of fourteen.

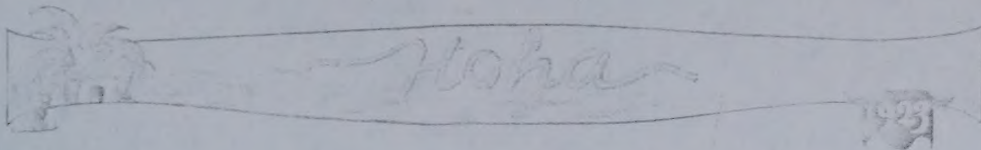

In our Sophomore year eleven of our old classmates came to take up their studies. By welcoming Kenneth Sweet back after having quit a half year, and Miss Constance Kisabeth a new scholar, our class roll was raised to thirteen. As Sophomores we had a faculty of three good teachers. Mr. Ford, Mr. Bilderback and Miss Arrowsmith. Moreover we were sorry to lose our three former teachers, Mr. Rogers, Miss Mallett and Mrs. Yarlott. As Sophomores we delighted in hazing the freshies, going to parties and having a good time. We took part in putting out an annual, the second one put out in Farmer High. It was "The Aloha."

In our Junior year eleven of us were back as "Jolly Juniors." But during this year we lost two of our classmates, Clara Beerbower and Lelah Staup. Cupid, that little messenger of love, had sunk his shaft so deep into their hearts that they left Farmer High to pursue the study of domestic science.

In our Senior year eight of us are to graduate. This year we have a new teacher, Miss Florence Hunter, for Miss Arrowsmith fell victim to Cupid's dart last spring. We also lost a classmate, Miss Dorothy McConkey, who went to finish her schooling at Delphos. This is our most difficult year in F. H. S. It also is a year of thankfulness. Still there is sadness in leaving school and parting from classmates.

Now comes our broader and greater duty in life, where each must build on that small foundation we have built in Farmer High. May our lives be so lived as to do honor to the school which gave us inspiration for higher things.

Man's old tryst with wife's Upside-down, in yoga teacher cause

DEAR ABBY: My wife recently started a new yoga class she really likes. But I made the mistake of telling her that the instructor and I had dated briefly (had sex) when we were around 15. I am 50 now and my wife is 45. I was a promiscuous drunk when I was in high school and college. I have been sober now for 28 years, and we have been together for 22 years. I have not been with another woman since I met my wife.

Abby, she treats this situation as if I cheated on her yesterday, and this was 35 years ago! Also, after she recognized my wife's last name, the yoga instructor told my wife that I broke her heart back then. Help! — HEARTBREAKER

DEAR HEARTBREAKER: You have gotten your life in order, and the yoga instructor appears to be doing well. That she's 50 and in good enough shape to be teaching yoga says a lot for her flexibility. Clearly, neither you nor your old high school classmate has been trying to slip anything past your wife. If she really feels threatened because of your long-past relationship with her teacher, she should roll up her mat and find another class.

Memory*

God saw you getting tired,
and a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around you and whispered, "Come with me."
With tearful eyes we watched you suffer
And watched you fade away.
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us
That He only takes the best!
It's lonely here without you,
Life doesn't seem the same,
since you went away.
When days are sad and lonely,
And everything goes wrong,
We seem to hear you whisper,
"Cheer up and carry on."
Each time we see your picture,
You seem to smile and say,
"Don't cry, I'm in God's hands,
we'll meet again some day!"

THE TWENTY-THIRD PSALM

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green
pastures;

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk thru the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the House of the Lord for ever.

God saw she was getting tired, and a cure was not to be;
So he put His arms around her, and whispered, "Come with me."

With tearful eyes we watched her suffer, and saw her
fade away;

Although we loved her dearly, we could not make her stay.

A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands to rest;

God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the Best!

While the veterans have always furnished firing squads for funerals and proper occasions, in wasn't until 1956 that the group purchased their uniforms. One of their money-raising events was the "Riotous Womanless Wedding", a benefit show held on the stage of the school auditorium,

Darrell's offers car repairs, guns

Darrell D. Bayes opened the automotive section of Darrell's Auto Repair and The Gun Room, in 1962. Since then a 24 hour light and heavy duty wrecker service was added, along with a complete line of test equipment.

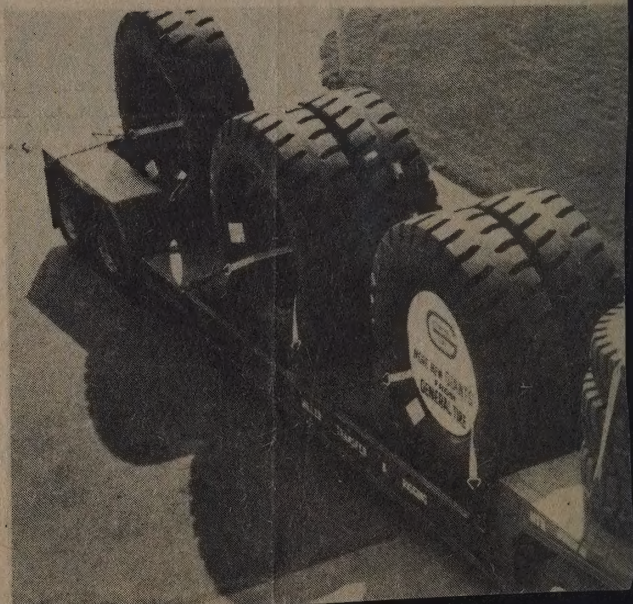

The adjoining property which previously belonged to the A&W Root Beer was purchased for a storage lot. A chain link fence has been placed around the storage yard, complete with green and white stripping added to help beautify the area.

In 1972 "The Gun Room" was added. Here one will find the finest selection of firearms for hunting and sporting needs as well as a complete stock of loading supplies and equipment in the area. Since Mr. Bayes is a firm believer of "The Right To Bear Arms", this past year he started accepting requests to lecture and debate on the federal and state laws of gun control that are NOW in effect.

Local man has huge collection of guns

Darrell Bayes, Bryan, has given The Bryan Times permission to photograph part of his private collection of commemorative and antique guns. The picture on the top are all Colt handguns dating back to the 1830's. In the center are some of his prize lever action rifles. The picture of four target rifles show the difference from the 1800's (shown in the middle) to 1973.

Except when on display, the full collection is stored in a bank vault for safety.

Bayes is a firm believer of "The right to bear arms" - which was handed down by our forefathers. However, he is also a firm believer of a stiffer penalty for the unlawful use of a firearm while committing a crime, thereby putting the penalty on the guilty, instead of law-abiding citizens.

He recalls in 1934, at the age of eight, he received his first .410 shotgun from his father and his first hunting license from his grandfather, who trained him in the proper use, handling and carrying of the gun. This training was over a three year period and during this time, he was not allowed to carry the gun loaded. As he looks back now, Bayes feels this training from his grandfather left him with the proper respect for all firearms. The last few years his interest has turned to target shooting at the Williams County Conservation Farm, where any type of firearm can be used, with due safety. Darrell's interest and hobby of firearms has led him to open "The Gun Room" at his place of business - Darrell's Auto Repair, in Bryan.

Cairns is a popular jumping-off point for visits to the Great Barrier Reef, the world's largest coral system which runs parallel to the coast for more than 1,400 miles. Authorities said it was too early to assess possible damage to the reef, visited by nearly two million tourists each year.

In Innisfail, a farming town of 8,500 that was hardest hit, Mayor Neil Clarke estimated that thousands were left homeless. He told the Australian Broadcasting Corp. the airport was being cleared to house people in tents. More than 100,000 people were without power, authorities said.

"It looks like an atomic bomb hit the place," he said.

The storm was so bad at its height overnight that police were unable to venture out and help terrified residents who called to say the winds had ripped roofs off buildings and destroyed their homes. As emergency services fanned out across the region later to assess the damage, they encountered scenes of devastation.

School renderings

By JOSH EWERS
Times Reporter

The Bryan Board of Education met Monday evening to unveil its first detailed renderings of the new 6-12 building.

The rigid design for the roughly 148,000 square foot school, designed by Beilharz Architects, features a building with several towers that encloses a massive courtyard, bigger than a football field.

The courtyard's serrated, lighter-bricked perimeter allows for the utilization of small alcoves as individual outdoor classroom spaces. Additionally, the courtyard contains a dining area, gardens, and plenty of seating.

The towers will remain lit at night.

The connecting parts of the building masses (middle school, high school, gym, cafeteria etc.), easily seen from the aerial view, create natural voids for entrances.

Perhaps the most useful feature is the event entrance, independent of both the

By CHRISTOPHER CULLIS

christopher@bryantimes.com

Two Williams County organizations and future graduating music students from Bryan High School will benefit from the second-largest gift ever given to the Bryan Area Foundation.

The late Eleanor Bayes bequeathed $1.375 million to the foundation to create designated funds in which the earnings will help support the Williams County Humane Society, the Williams County Public Library's genealogy department and create a new scholarship fund to benefit a graduating Bryan senior majoring in music.

Bayes, who died on Jan. 15, 2015, served on the board of directors of the Humane Society where she volunteered countless hours. Her father, Ewing P. Knox, was a family historian and active in the genealogical society at the Williams County Library.

"Eleanor has paid it forward by creating endowment funds that will continue to support her family's interest for many years to come," Jack Brace, president of the Bryan Area Foundation said.

The late Eleanor Bayes bequeathed $1,375,000 to the Bryan Area Foundation, the second largest gift to the foundation in its 46-year history. Pictured seated from left are: Jane Huffman, representing the Williams County Public Library; Linda Gotshall Ward, niece of Mrs Bayes; and Lisa Stalter, representing the Williams County Humane Society.
